Ideas to help you have a great time listening to and learning from general conference:

BEFORE CONFERENCE

- Play the matching games at lds.org/generalconference/children. This will help you learn the names of the prophets and apostles. You can also review their names and pictures in this notebook.
- What we learn from conference can help us improve our lives and find answers to problems. Write down what you hope to learn from conference that might help you.
- Ask Heavenly Father to help you listen and understand the messages.

DURING CONFERENCE

- Each time a new talk begins, find the speaker's picture in this notebook. If the speaker's picture isn't here, write his or her name on a blank piece of paper.
- Write down something you learn from the talk, or draw a picture of what the speaker talks about.
- Pay attention to feelings and thoughts you have. The Holy Ghost can teach you and help you know the messages are true.

AFTER CONFERENCE

- Write down your answers to these questions:
  1. What are the main things you learned from conference?
  2. What are you going to do because of what you learned?
- Share what you learned with your family and friends. For example, you could share the things you wrote or drew in this notebook in family home evening or in Primary.
