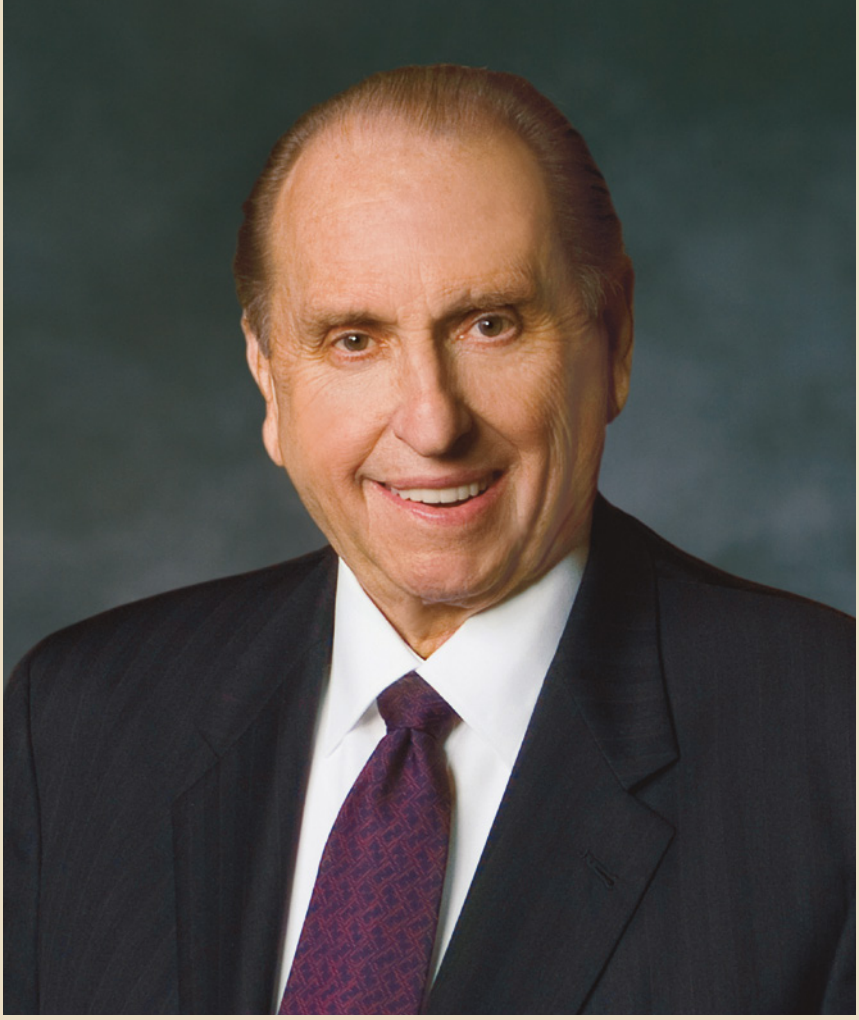
PRIESTHOOD LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE ON SCOUTING

THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS



“I believe in Scouting.

I believe in the goals of the organization. I believe in the power of Scouting to bless and enrich lives for good.

Impossible to measure is the great good which has come from Scouting during the last century. Skills have been learned, values have been established, good deeds have been done, and lives have been enriched.

It has been said, the greatest gift a man can give a boy is his willingness to share part of his life with him.”

Thomas S. Monson

Our Objective—
Strengthen the Aaronic Priesthood

The Lord will inspire you how to strengthen the Aaronic Priesthood. As part of your plans, consider how you can:

- Achieve real growth through Scouting.
- Strengthen shepherds.
- Engage each boy and young man to fulfill his duty to God and become a faithful priesthood man.

Learn, Act, Share

Throughout the week, you will participate in the "Learn, Act, Share" process as found in Duty to God. This process is an effective way to strengthen families, leaders, advisers, boys, and young men.

Learn:

"Seek learning, even by study and also by faith" (D&C 88:118).

Seek to understand how you can strengthen the Aaronic Priesthood. Participate with real intent in the learning sessions. Study, ponder, and pray. Counsel with the Lord and others. Capture your insights and inspiration in your journal.

Act:

"Bind yourselves to act" (D&C 43:9). "Act . . . in all diligence" (D&C 107:99).

Determine how you will achieve the vision that has come to you. Exercise your faith. Develop effective plans to act upon. Identify potential obstacles and ways you can avoid or overcome them. Commit to the Lord and others that you will diligently fulfill your plans.

Share:

"When all have spoken . . . all may be edified of all" (D&C 88:122).

Freely share your feelings, experiences, plans, and testimony with others, including your family. Listen carefully to their responses. Continue to learn, act, and share, and invite others to do the same.
