

King Benjamin Teaches the Nephites

King Benjamin

was a good leader. He wanted the

Nephites

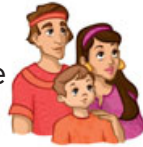

to be happy.

wanted to talk to the tower

. They came from all over the land to hear him speak. The king stood on a so the could hear and see him.

told the

that he tried hard to serve them and that they should serve each other. He also taught them about

Jesus Christ

commandments

that they could be happy if they followed and kept the

After spoke, the fell to the ground. They were sorry they weren't always obedient. They prayed and repented for not being obedient. Heavenly Father forgave the

. They felt happy.

told the

to pray every day. He also told them that children

should not fight or argue.

said should serve one another. The

The

promised to keep the

was happy.