These women are wives, mothers, and grandmothers. Here are some other fun things about them! You can print more cards at friend.lds.org.

Our Women Leaders

Sister Carole M. Stephens
First Counselor
Relief Society General Presidency

Sister Linda K. Burton
General President of the Relief Society

Sister Linda S. Reeves
Second Counselor
Relief Society General Presidency

Sister Bonnie F. McConkie
First Counselor
Young Women General Presidency

Sister Bonnie L. Oscarson
General President of the Young Women

Sister Neill F. Marriott
Second Counselor
Young Women General Presidency

Sister Jean B. Bingham
First Counselor
Primary General Presidency

Sister Joy D. Jones
General President of the Primary

Sister Bonnie H. Cordon
Second Counselor
Primary General Presidency
• Grew up playing in the banana trees in her backyard with her four younger brothers.
• Loves swimming and reading books to her grandchildren.
• Loves to read the Book of Mormon and stories about Jesus.

• Loved roller-skating, hopscotch, kickball, and neighborhood games as a child.
• Was called as a Primary chorister while living in New Zealand as a teen.
• Studied in college to become an elementary school teacher.

• Was sealed to her parents when she was five, after her mom was baptized and her dad started coming to church again.
• Sang in choirs and was captain of a drill team called the Bonnie Lassies.
• Taught seminary and loves religion classes. Met her husband at institute.

• Liked horseback riding as a child, and rode in the local rodeo parade.
• Was baptized when she was 22 years old.
• First job was working in a library. Later, loved reading bedtime stories to her 11 children.

• As a child, loved reading under the apricot trees and climbing trees with her two older brothers.
• Was art editor of her high school’s magazine and studied literature and graphic design in college.
• Lived in eight different U.S. states and in Sweden twice!

• Liked reading in the farmhouse attic when she wasn’t working or playing in the orchards and fields.
• Spent a summer in France as a teen.
• In college, was a student teacher in a high school English class.

• In grade school she raised chickens and sold eggs.
• Studied education in college and served a mission in Portugal.
• Loves to scuba dive, ski, hike, and meet people around the world.

• Loves eating popcorn and having popcorn parties with her family.
• Carried stacks of library books home to read before school and on weekends.
• Studied home and family sciences in college.

• By the time she was seven, she had lived in four U.S. states!
• Loves to climb trees, watch birds, and collect interesting rocks.
• Studied teaching in college and enjoys helping children learn English as a second language.