

Camp Liahona Redwoods Rules

1. All people who come to camp must observe the Church's standards of personal conduct, whether or not they are members of the Church.
2. Dress and grooming should be modest, tasteful, and in keeping with LDS Church Standards.
3. Bathing suits should be one-piece or modest tankini for women and girls and loose-fitting, boxer-type for men and boys.
4. Coffee, tea, alcohol, tobacco, and substance abuse are prohibited.
5. Please refrain from foul language, as well as music or behavior that is not in harmony with the respectful atmosphere that should be maintained on the property.
6. Each person who comes here should follow the highest standards of conduct—courtesy and kindness being the hallmarks of your conduct while here.
7. Families and other groups are encouraged to use the camps during times when it is not in use by organized Church groups. Camps are scheduled giving priority to LDS Church Young Women groups, then to other LDS Church-sponsored groups, and lastly to families and other groups.
8. The camps may be available to families and groups for a fee based on group size and facilities needed.
9. Families and groups not directly sponsored by a unit of the Church wish to use Church recreation camps must fill out and sign the Hold Harmless form.
10. There may or may not be firewood at the campsite. Check with the camp manager or just bring your own firewood. You can build fires ONLY in approved campfire rings provided by the camp.
11. You must attend to fires at all times.
12. Make sure fires have been completely extinguished with water and are cool to the touch—before leaving.
13. Permission to have campfires is subject to change according to the local fire marshal's directive at the time. Please check with the camp manager regarding the current fire restrictions.
14. Absolutely no fireworks are permitted at Church recreation camps, even for special events or holidays.
15. Firearms, BB guns, paintball guns and other weapons are generally not permitted on the properties.
16. Absolutely no hunting is permitted.
17. There are a few camps that have ranges for archery and rifle shooting. These properties require advance permission and scheduling for you to bring these items. You must contact the camp manager to make arrangements.
18. Generally camps are closed on Sunday unless approved by the host stake president and the person responsible for scheduling the camp. Persons staying through Sunday are invited to attend Church services nearby and engage only in activities that conform with the spirit of the Sabbath.
19. Athletic fields, equipment, boats, and similar items are not to be used on Sunday.

20. Motorcycles or ATVs are not permitted at camp. All motorized vehicles must remain on designated roads and parking areas. However, many properties have paths suitable for pedal bicycles. Check with the camp manager for details.

21. No pets are permitted at Church recreation camps, even if they stay in your vehicle.

22. As a courtesy to other campers and neighboring residents, all campers are encouraged to be at their campsite and observe a noise curfew from 10:00 p.m. to 7:00 a.m. For specific times or exceptions for special events, please contact the camp manager.
