

Prepare Us For The Sacrament

Text and music by A. Hamer Reiser, Jr.

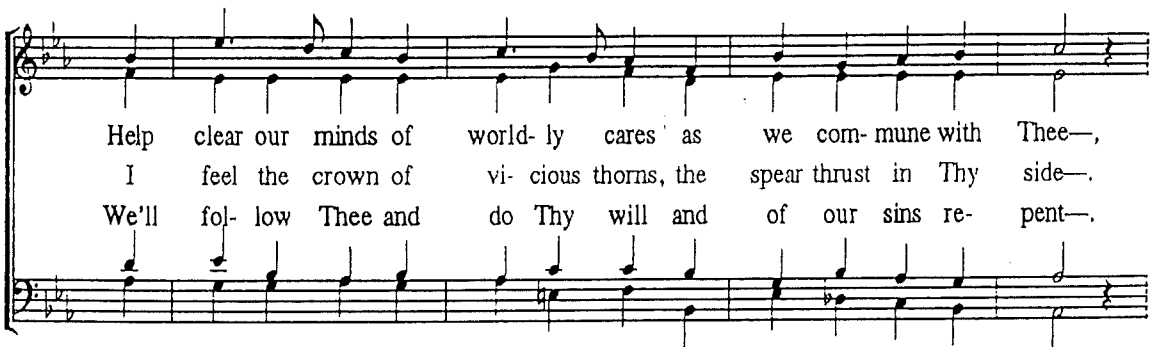

Reverently

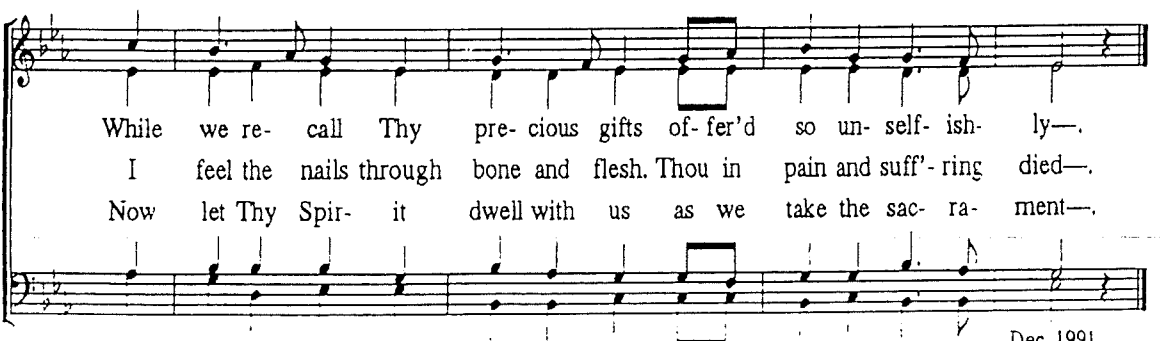

1. As we pre- pare this sa- cred hour the em- blems to re- ceive—
2. I sense the taun- ting of the crowd, I taste the bit- ter gall—.
3. O, Sav- ior dear, Thy match- less love for us we'll not for- get—.

Of Thy a- ton- ing sac- ri- fice for all who would be- lieve—,
Thy knew not that this King of Kings would die to save us all—.
If we should la- bor all our days, we'd ne'er re- pay the debt—.

Help clear our minds of world- ly cares as we com- mune with Thee—,
I feel the crown of vi- cious thorns, the spear thrust in Thy side—.
We'll fol- low Thee and do Thy will and of our sins re- pent—.

While we re- call Thy pre- cious gifts of- fer'd so un- self- ish- ly—.
I feel the nails through bone and flesh. Thou in pain and suff'- ring died—.
Now let Thy Spir- it dwell with us as we take the sac- ra- ment—.
