

1. How might you explain this principle to help someone understand how to be taught by the Lord and understand spiritual truths?

2. How have your personal efforts affected your ability to receive the Lord's guidance and understand the gospel?