•According to King Mosiah, what benefits would come through making decisions by the voice of the people?

•What consequences would come if the voice of the people chose iniquity?

•In Mosiah 29:34, what do you think is the meaning of the phrase "that every man might bear his part"? How might this phrase apply to citizens' responsibilities to participate in their local and national governments?

•Why is it important for both leaders and followers to be accountable for their actions?

•What can you do to support righteous laws and leaders?

•Whom did the people choose to be the first chief judge? Did he live up to his charge to be a just and righteous leader? What resulted from his leadership?