

Bible Exercise

Use James 3:2–13 to assist you in filling in the following blanks:

1. If a man can control the _____ he speaks, he is also able to control his whole body. (verse 2)
  2. A horse's body can be controlled by a small _____ in its mouth. (verse 3)
  3. Large ships at sea, though driven by fierce winds, can be guided in any direction by a very small _____. (verse 4)
  4. Our _____ is compared to the horse's bit and the ship's helm because it affects our whole body. (verses 5–6)
  5. Man has been able to tame animals of all kinds, but the thing he has the hardest time taming is his own _____. (verses 7–8)
  6. Some people use their tongues to _____ God, and to _____ man, who is made in the image of God. (verse 9)
  7. Both blessings and cursings should not come out of the same _____. (verse 10)
  8. Both _____ and _____ water do not come from the same fountain. (verse 11)
  9. If we are wise, we can show it by our good _____. (verse 13)
-

Bible Exercise

Use James 3:2–13 to assist you in filling in the following blanks:

1. If a man can control the _____ he speaks, he is also able to control his whole body. (verse 2)
2. A horse's body can be controlled by a small _____ in its mouth. (verse 3)
3. Large ships at sea, though driven by fierce winds, can be guided in any direction by a very small _____. (verse 4)
4. Our _____ is compared to the horse's bit and the ship's helm because it affects our whole body. (verses 5–6)
5. Man has been able to tame animals of all kinds, but the thing he has the hardest time taming is his own _____. (verses 7–8)
6. Some people use their tongues to _____ God, and to _____ man, who is made in the image of God. (verse 9)
7. Both blessings and cursings should not come out of the same _____. (verse 10)
8. Both _____ and _____ water do not come from the same fountain. (verse 11)
9. If we are wise, we can show it by our good _____. (verse 13)