

Remember and Partake

By John Wright

*The body, that I may be resurrected,
The blood, that I may be redeemed,
The bread, that I may remember,
The water, that I may become clean.
Gethsemane's garden, so much suffering,
But the empty tomb, filled with hope.
Come, let us remember, let us partake.*

