Sometimes at school when I have no work to do, I read the Book of Mormon. When I read it while at school, many kids ask, "What is that?" so I tell them what it is and a little about the gospel. It makes me feel good to share.

Will M., age 12, California, USA

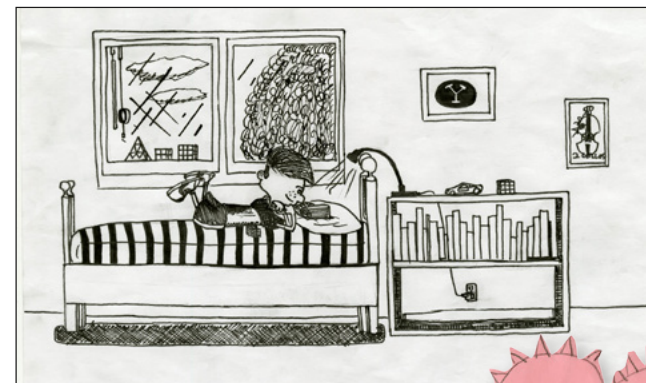

When I was little, I was afraid of water. Even though people told me I didn't need to worry about being baptized, I was scared. The missionaries told me that Jesus Christ was baptized to set an example, and I could feel my fear go away. When I was baptized, I felt a great joy.
