

DEAR PARENTS,

We hope you and your family were able to enjoy general conference last month. You can review some of the messages with your children on pages 2–7. You can also pray about which messages are most important for your family right now. How can you follow the Lord's voice today?

With love,
The Friend

READING TIP

Read the stories out loud to your children. Point to the words as you read. You could also ask them to read out loud with you.
