

WOMEN IN THE OLD TESTAMENT

Match each name with the correct description.

1.

I was the first woman on earth. My husband is Adam. We lived in the Garden of Eden. (See Genesis 3:20.)

2.

A man asked me for water from a well. I gave water to him and his 10 camels. Then I went with him to meet a man named Isaac. Isaac became my husband. (See Genesis 24:15-19, 64-67.)

3.

My people were in trouble. I asked them to pray and fast for me. Then I asked my husband, the king, to save them. He listened, and my people were saved. (See Esther 7:2-4.)

4.

I could not have children for many years. The Lord promised that I would have a son. I had faith and patience. The Lord blessed me with a son named Isaac. (See Genesis 21:1-3.)

5.

I was a judge and prophetess. I helped the Israelites come closer to God. I sang a song to praise God after He helped the people. (See Judges 4:4; 5:1-2.)

6.

When my son died, his wife, Ruth, took care of me. When Ruth remarried and had a baby, I helped take care of her son. (See Ruth 1:8, 14-18.)
