

DEAR PARENTS,

All of us have questions sometimes. If we handle them with faith, they can help us learn and grow closer to Heavenly Father. Be open to your children's questions about the gospel. Teach them how to pray for answers and then search for them in good places. Help them trust that Heavenly Father will answer in His own time and way. You can start with some ideas on pages 38–40.

With love,
The Friend
