

Jesus Promised Us Comfort

Jesus Christ knew His disciples would need comfort after He died. So He taught them about the Holy Ghost. He promised that the Holy Ghost would comfort them and be with them always. One name for the Holy Ghost is the Comforter. When we are sad or scared, the Holy Ghost can help us remember Jesus Christ's love. ●

You can read this story in John 14:1, 16-18, 26.

I CAN COMFORT OTHERS

Who is someone who needs comfort?

Say a prayer and make a plan to help them.

Do your plan!

My mom, dad, and I gave blankets to a children's hospital. The hospital workers said the blankets would help the kids not feel afraid anymore. I am glad that our blankets will help cheer the kids up and make them happy. It made me feel happy too.

Brooklyn D., age 9, Texas, USA

How are you trying to help others, like Jesus did? Write and tell us.

Cut out this card to remind you to keep helping like Jesus.