

Hello from Estonia!

We're Margo and Paolo. This year we're traveling around the world to learn about God's children. Join us as we visit Estonia!

This is Tallinn, the capital of Estonia. It has been around for 800 years! Estonia has lots of wild places, like woods and bogs. In fact, more than half of Estonia is covered in forest. Lots of people in Estonia like spending time in nature.

Here's how to say "hello" in Estonian:

Tere!

And here's how you say the Church's name:

Viimse Aja Pühade Jeesuse Kristuse Kirik

Estonia is in northern Europe. It has more than 2,000 islands. About 1.3 million people live in Estonia.

What's for dinner in Estonia? Maybe pork or pickled fish with potatoes, cabbage, sour cream, and black bread. That's called a sprat sandwich.

The Church in Estonia is small but strong. There are about a thousand Church members. Their closest temple is in Helsinki, Finland.

Do you like singing in Primary? Every five years, Estonians gather at a big festival to celebrate their country with singing and dancing.

Meet two sisters from Estonia!

One night when I wanted to go to bed, my teddy was missing. I looked for it but couldn't find it. I prayed. Then I found my teddy bear and had good dreams.

Our family likes to serve others. Serving helps us to feel the Holy Ghost, which gives us a warm feeling of peace. My sisters and I make presents for others because we want them to feel loved.
