

Dear Parents,

Sometimes we don't agree with other people. But we can still love them. We can also hold on to what we know is true. Read the story on page F10 with your children and talk about these questions:

How did Ellie's family show love?

How did Ellie's family keep their faith strong?

How can our family show love to other people, even when we don't agree?

We are all different, but every person is a child of God!

Share love,

The Friend
