“We often speak of the Savior’s Atonement—and rightly so!

“In Jacob’s words, ‘Why not speak of the atonement of Christ, and attain to a perfect knowledge of him?’ [Jacob 4:12]. But as ‘we talk of Christ, . . . rejoice in Christ, . . . preach of Christ, [and] prophesy of Christ’ [2 Nephi 25:26] at every opportunity, we must never lose our sense of awe and profound gratitude for the eternal sacrifice of the Son of God.

“The Savior’s Atonement cannot become commonplace in our teaching, in our conversation, or in our hearts. It is sacred and holy.”
