

WORDS to Live By

Being a refugee may be a defining moment in the lives of those who are refugees, but being a refugee does not define them. . . . This moment does not define them, but our response will help define us.

Elder Patrick Kearon of the Seventy

Knowing someone's name can make a difference.

Elder Neil L. Andersen of the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles

As sisters we make up more than half of the Lord's storehouse to help Heavenly Father's children. His storehouse is not composed just of goods but also of time, talents, skills, and our divine nature.

Linda K. Burton, Relief Society general president

Your ability to lead does not come from an outgoing personality, motivational skills, or even a talent for public speaking. It comes from your commitment to follow Jesus Christ.

Stephen W. Owen, Young Men general president

Our commitment to the Lord and His servants cannot be a part-time commitment.

Bishop W. Christopher Waddell, Second Counselor in the Presiding Bishopric

Children have a natural desire to do good and to be good. WE CAN FEEL THEIR INNOCENCE, THEIR PURITY.

Mary R. Durham, former second counselor in the Primary general presidency

Set aside PRIDE.

President Dieter F. Uchtdorf, Second Counselor in the First Presidency

If you . . . have any questions in your heart, do not give up! . . .

I invite you to follow the example of the Prophet Joseph Smith when he read in James 1:5, "If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally."

Elder Jairo Mazzagardi of the Seventy

Once we repent and priesthood leaders declare us worthy, we need not continue to confess and confess these past sins. To be worthy does not mean to be perfect. Heavenly Father's plan of happiness invites us to be humbly at peace on our life's journey to someday become perfected in Christ, not constantly worried, frustrated, or unhappy in our imperfections today. REMEMBER, HE KNOWS ALL THE THINGS WE DON'T WANT ANYONE ELSE TO KNOW ABOUT US—AND LOVES US STILL.

Elder Gerrit W. Gong of the Presidency of the Seventy

Come to the temple. Come often. Come with and for your family. Come, and help others to come too.

Elder Kent F. Richards of the Seventy
