Subject: Tribute to Scouting: Event Commemorating 100 Years of Scouting in the Church

THE CHURCH OF
JESUS CHRIST
OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS

To commemorate the 100th anniversary of the partnership between The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and the Boy Scouts of America, a special tribute to Scouting, A Century of Honor, will be broadcast via satellite from the Conference Center on Tuesday, October 29, 2013, at 7:00 p.m. mountain daylight time. In addition, the celebration will be streamed live at scouts100.lds.org, where it will also be available for later viewing.

Church-sponsored Boy Scout and Cub Scout units, as well as units sponsored by other organizations, are invited to view the broadcast. Family members and friends may also be invited to attend.

Priesthood leaders may use the broadcast as an opportunity to build relationships and celebrate the values that make our communities strong. They may consider meeting with local BSA leaders to plan a community outreach event associated with the broadcast. Ideas for activities that could be planned are listed on the back of this notice.

A broadcast schedule accompanies this notice. It includes information for the Church satellite system and the Internet. This information is also available online at broadcastinfo.lds.org.

For more information about the celebration, visit scouts100.lds.org.

Activity Ideas for a Community Outreach Event Associated with the Scouting Broadcast

- Local chartered organizations could set up Scouting displays to be viewed before or after the broadcast.
- Scouting leaders could be invited to share information about Scouting in the community.
- Leaders of chartered partners, prominent Scouters, and other people of influence in the community could be invited to attend the broadcast and be recognized before or after the event.
- Local Scouting units could provide interactive games and activities for attendees before the broadcast.
- Local Scouting units could organize a service project (such as a food drive or neighborhood cleanup) that culminates at the Church building in time for the broadcast.
