

Repentance

Consider the following to help you create your outline:

- Repentance topic page
- Preach My Gospel, pages 62–63
- Activity ideas in Come, Follow Me

Think about the people you are going to teach. What do they already understand about repentance? Consider their age, experience, and learning styles. What do you think would be the most effective way to help them come unto Christ through repentance?

Sample Outline A (share a brief definition, scripture, and personal experience)

Repentance means [give a brief definition of what repentance is and what the key steps of repentance are]:

My favorite scripture (or scriptures) about repentance is:

This scripture teaches us:

In my life [without sharing inappropriate details, share a personal experience about how you have relied on the Savior to repent and become a better person. Consider sharing how your repentance has blessed others]:

Sample Outline B

What pictures, objects, or experiences can you share to help the people you are teaching understand repentance? (Consider images like Alma the younger being reproved by an angel, Enos seeking forgiveness of his sins, or the prodigal son.)

Prayerfully study scriptures and general conference talks about repentance. What do you feel impressed to share with the people you are going to teach? How can you help them discover for themselves the importance of repentance?

How can an understanding of repentance be a blessing in the lives of those you will teach? How has your desire to be more like Christ guided you in making daily decisions? What personal experiences could you or those you are teaching share?

What do you hope will happen in the lives of the people you teach? How will you invite them to act on what they learn? What will you do to continue to support and love them?
