

Choose to Stay

No, I can't say
I know how you're feeling
Or what you're going through
But I, can tell
Lately you've been hurting
And that's not you

Pre:
There are times that we feel like running
Tell ourselves that we're good for nothing
But you know that's not true

Chorus:
You could choose to stay
You could choose to see beyond this moment
Hope for a better day
I know that life gets hard, no matter who you are
If you hold on something better's on the way
You could choose to stay

You think that life
Would just go on without you
Like nothing changed
But you're a part
Of a bigger picture
It wouldn't be the same

All the plans that we made together
Would disappear and be gone forever
If you went away
