

Thy Will Be Done

Thy will be done
Oh, Lord, not mine
Whether in brightest day or darkest night
And give me strength to carry on
Whatever comes
Thy will be done

And though I walk on paths unknown
And pass through fire or wear a crown of thorns
I know I'll never be alone
This is my song
Thy will be done

Bridge:
Though I don't always understand
What thou hast willed, what thou hast planned
I'll leave it all inside thy hands
And trust thy will until we meet again

Thy will be done
Oh, Lord, not mine
Though tears may fall
And loved ones say goodbye
Thou seest so much more than I
Thy kingdom come
Thy will be done
