

“Hear It from You”

You're a son or daughter
Of a Heavenly Father
And He loves to hear your voice
He really cares about you
He built this world around you
And wants you to tell Him
Though He already knows

Chorus:

All the hurt that you've been feeling
All the secrets you've been keeping
Every thought in your head
All the words you've never said
Though He knows just what you're needing
And all the dreams that you've been dreaming
Before He helps them come true
He wants to hear it from you

He doesn't need a reason
But when you show you need Him
He'll be there with open arms
He just wants to bless you
And He will always help you
If you show Him
What's inside your heart
