

“Strong”

You are an overcomer
Born with a lion heart
You can pass through the wind and the fire
But it'll help you to shine even brighter
Like the jewel you are

There may be disappointments
Sometimes you'll make mistakes
But when it feels like you've lost all your chances
There you are rising up from the ashes
Come what may
Come what may

Chorus:
You are strong
Strong enough to make it through
Whatever comes
You'll be amazed what you can do
You're a force
You're a fighter
A precious daughter of God
And He made you strong

You're like a mighty ocean
Trapped in a hurricane
Though the winds may be blowing around you
There is nothing that could ever drown you
Come what may
Come what may
